It was stated in the telegram that the boy is supposed to be on a steamer coming to this King George is the county seat of King

George county, and it is not a great distance from where the colored man Lomax now in the Alexandria jail for safe keeping, was arrested for a similar crime. of Police Chief in Womelsdorf, W. Va.

HISTORY OF MAN'S CRIMES.

Capt. Boardman is preparing a copy of the record of Richard, alias Henry, Lacan-Pier, where she also entertained earlier in ster, alias Charles Johnson, colored, of this city, who is in jail at Parsons, W. Va. charged with participating in the murder of Chief of Police Wilmot of Womelsdorf about three weeks ago. The records show that Lancaster, who is familiarly known here as "Chalky," has been arrested many times since 1891. His sentences aggregate three and a half years in the penitentiary, Mr. and Mrs. William Allison, and Mr. 910 days in jail and about six months in the workhouse.

Lancaster is in jail at Parsons for the reason that the prison there is supposed to be much stronger than the one at Elkins, where he will eventually be taken for trial. Two men have already been lynched in connection with the crime and Lancaster fears he will be the third victim when he is taken from Parsons to Elkins. The two colored men who were lynched, Lancaster declared, were innocent of the charge preferred against them. Carroll and Clements, he says, were in a house at the time the shooting occurred at Womelsdorf.

shooting occurred at Womelsdorf.

The prisoner is quoted as having said that James Black, colored, of this city is the man who fired the fatal shot. Black is not known to the local police authorities, His picture is not in the rogues' gallery, while Lancaster's is.

During his career in this city Lancaster was arrested for vagrancy, assault, theft, carrying concealed weapons and larceny from the person. He served one term in the penitentiary at Trenton, N. J., and one at Albany, N. Y.

Substance of Statement. A dispatch to the Baltimore Sun from Elkins, W. Va., says: "Henry Lancaster, the colored man caught after an exciting chase of several weeks and now in jail at Parsons, W. Va., charged with complicity in the murder of Chief of Police F. H. Wilmoth, at Womelsdorf, W. Va., declares that the negroes Clement and Carroll, who were lynched, had no connection with the murder. He charges that the murderer was James Black, a negro, who came from Washington, D. C. Black escaped. Lancaster was being arrested when Wilmoth was shot from ambush.

"Lancaster says Black fired the fatal the shot from the brush, almost directly in front of the officer. Lancaster wandered sixteen days in the mountain fastnesses, throwing off the scent of bloodhounds and living on beries. He was shot at many times. Chief Wilmoth was taking Lancaster to the lockup, while a deputy had charge of Black, who escaped and fired the bullet, first striking Lancaster in the arm and then killing Wilmoth. After the shot Lancaster stood about for some time, and noting the excitement thought it best to
